

Alexandria Gazette

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 6

Sonnet.

The rain falls softly on the window eaves,
And whispers lowly to the rustling grass,
And loads the wind's dusk pinions as they pass,
To shake the glittering moisture on the leaves.
The rain sweeps where the great sea swells and heaves,
And dimples all the locked lake's living glass;
The rain sobs round the home whose light she wax,
As with the hearts left desolate it grieves,
And listening to its murmur all alone,
I set its cadence to my yearning sorrow,
And love's mad yearning for the darling song,
From nature's wild seems strength renewed to borrow,
Till I can hear the dull plash on the clay
Of that dear new-made grave, broad leaved away.

AUCTION SALES.

VIRGINIA MIDLAND R. R.

FOR SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION.

By virtue of and in obedience to a decree rendered by the Circuit Court for the city of Alexandria in the chancery cause of John C. Graham vs. the Washington City, Virginia Midland and Great Southern Railroad Company and others, on the 15th day of February, 1880, I shall, in front of the Market Building, on Royal street, in the city of Alexandria, in the State of Virginia, at twelve (12) o'clock m., on THURSDAY, the 13th day of May, 1880, sell at public auction to the highest bidder the following described property:

The entire line of railroad known as the Washington City, Virginia Midland and Great Southern Railroad, lying between the city of Alexandria and the city of Danville, and from the town of Manassas, in the county of Prince William, on the aforesaid main line, to the town of Harrisonburg, in the county of Rockingham, together with all the branches thereof as they now exist, with all appurtenances and equipment, rights, privileges, franchises, properties, real and personal, and works to the said railroad and branches thereof belonging, in and to the same, including, including the roadway and tracks, rails and roadbed, structures, bridges, viaducts, trestles, fences, stations, depots, machine shops, and all other buildings and structures, docks and wharves, sand and gravel pits and deposits of materials and all other things belonging to, or used, or designed to be used, for or in connection with the said railroad or any of its branches and all other personal property thereunto belonging, including all property and things whatsoever of any such nature or description as is above mentioned. The said line of railway and branches extends a total distance of 315 miles.

The purchaser of said road and property hereby described will also be substituted to the rights and assume the responsibilities of said railroad company under a contract between said company and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, dated on the 23rd day of August, 1875, whereby the said Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company leases from said defendant Railroad Company so much of the said road as lies between Strasburg and Harrisonburg, and so much of said road as lies between said points will be sold subject to said lease.

The said purchaser will further take said road and other property subject to the orders made under orders of the Circuit Court for the city of Alexandria by the Receiver in said suit with the Charlottesville and Rapidan Railroad Company, and the Franklin and Potomac Railroad Company, and subject to all other orders of the Receiver in regard to said property, whether made under order of the Court or not, and will assume all his liabilities thereunder. Should the purchaser not comply with the terms of sale, there will be a resale at his cost and risk. The terms upon which said Commissioner shall sell said property are as follows: That the cash, which is herein provided shall be paid to the Commissioner within five days after said sale, and the residue shall be paid by the purchaser upon the completion of said sale in such manner as the Court in the decree of confirmation may direct.
